....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a Writ of Mandamus or any other appropriate writ order or direction declaring the action of the 1st Respondent in interfering with civil rights of the petitioners and asking the petitioners to come to Police Station and made to sit there hours together without any complaint, at the instance of Respondents 2 and 3 as illegal, arbitrary and unconstitutional and issue consequential direction to the 1st Respondent not to interfere with the civil disputes.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.S.APPADHARA REDDY

Counsel for the Respondent No.1: GP FOR HOME

The Court made the following:

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.V.S.RAO

WRIT PETITION NO.21882 OF 1999

ORDER:

The petitioners invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking a direction to the first respondent not to interfere with the civil rights of the petitioners. After receiving notices, a counter affidavit is filed by the first respondent denying the allegations. It is further stated that on a complaint given by respondents 2 and 3, after conducting preliminary enquiry, they were advised to go to civil Court. In that view of the matter, nothing survives in the writ petition.

The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed as infructuous.
